NEGRO GOP CHIEF VISITS COOLIDGE

Georgia Party Leader Confers on Campaign

WHITE HOUSE MECCA

Southern Representation Is Bone of Contention

(Copyright by United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—

The White House today became national headquarters of the Coolidge for president campaign.

With the republican national committee in town and with the formal announcement of Mr. Coolidge's candidacy still echoing, the office of C. Bascom Sloop, Mr. Coolidge's secretary and political lieutenant, became the mecca of politicians eager to "climb on the band wagon" to get front seats.

Miss Johnson Calls

Henry Lincoln Johnson, the negro republican leader from Georgia, was the first political caller.

Senator Spencer, Missouri, talked with the president about appointment of a federal judge in Missouri.

Ex-Senator Calder of New York saw Sloop to talk politics.

Now that Mr. Coolidge is openly in the field, questions which his silence kept more or less in the background have come to the front. Chief among them are these:

Who will be the next chairman of the republican national committee, if Mr. Coolidge is nominated?

What will the national committee do about southern representation in the national convention?

Will Mr. Coolidge actively oppose Hiram Johnson in the presidential primaries in California and other states?

Southern representation is a delicate and embarrassing one. Hiram Johnson's forces have demanded a bigger cut in the southern delegation, in favor of northern states holding presidential primaries. At the same time, a committee came here today representing southern republicans to protest against the reduction being made. Mississippi republicans put up to the national committee today this question:

"Do you want Mr. Coolidge to have 12 votes from Mississippi, under the old apportionment, or four, which he will get under the new one?"

As to the presidential primaries, it is assumed here Mr. Coolidge will go into them, taking advantage of the invitation which Hiram Johnson issued to all his rivals for the republican nomination.

PRE-CHRISTMAS YEGGS AT WORK

Store and Residence Lose $200 in Money and Property

Thefts of merchandise and valuables valued at upwards of $200 were reported today to police as the result of week-end activities of thieves. With the pre-Christmas season here, Chief Covington has ordered patrolmen to take extra precaution in patrolling their beats in order to reduce petty thievery to a minimum. This brand of stealing being more prevalent before the holiday season.

The Port Arthur Army and Navy store on Procter street was entered sometime early this morning and goods valued at about $70 taken. Included in the loot were two guns, a black traveling bag and $10 in change in the cash drawer. As far as could be learned no attempt had been made on the safe. Manager Jack Stevenson reported.

D. R. Evans, 549 Sixth street reported to police someone had entered his residence early today and stole a suit of clothing, $40 in money and a gold watch.

Evans believes the thief threw the suit away after rifling it and asks its return, should it be found, a resolution.

Identification Superintendent Ray Thorp was assigned to investigate the cases with Captain Lee Fox.

SHOALS FOR FORD

McKellar Offers Resolution in Senate

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—A resolution providing for acceptance of Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals without changing its terms was introduced in the senate today by Senator McKellar, democratic, Tennessee.

McKellar also offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a special senate committee to investigate whether the secretary of war had a legal right to dispose of the Muscle Shoals plant at Muscle Shoals to the Alabama Power company.

Mexican Federals Retake Vera Cruz

'YOUNGEST' TEXAS SONGBIRD

Mrs. Henry Clay Wright of Austin, Tex., is 80 years old and has always been known as the "youngest" Texas songbird.

She was shown at the concert stage. Now for the first time she will realize her ambition, being scheduled to make her debut in New York on Dec. 31.

Jugs Still in Use as Water

Coyly Refuses to Get Fresh

Newcomers on Waterwagon Swear Off as New Well Double Crosses Them—Next Few Days Will Tell Experimental folk who yesterday tried out "Fresh Water Smiles" on their favorite faucet, got knocked for a saline punch.

Hissofully hopeful, smiling in anticipation of a sweet, cool drink, scores of Port Arthurians gulped a mouthful and got the surprise of their lives.

Yes, There Wasn't Any

There was no fresh water.

As a matter of fact it was very salty.

Now word comes today from city officials that it may be another week before the salt water in the pipes has been drawn off sufficiently to give the fresh water flow a chance.

Until then the advice is to continue being experimental, but to use discretion.

When the great day comes there will be no doubt.

The water will be absolutely fresh or it will continue salty.

All Hope Not Lost

In the latter event it will indicate that the city's new fresh water well has failed and upset all the schemes for several additional ones now planned as a result of tapping a champagne vein.

However, all is not lost.

There is nothing to indicate that the well will fail, even if at the present moment there is nothing to indicate fresh water.

Only time will tell—to be exact, the next few days.

In the meantime, Port Arthur people must continue themselves with patience and await the judgment of the fates.

75,000 PEOPLE HERE IN 1930

Burge Urges Work to Realize Slogan

Every member of the Chamber of Commerce in 1924 will be a charter member of "Port Arthur's 75,000 Club."

This was the assertion today by Chamber of Commerce officials when it was announced that the "aim of the 1924 membership will be for a city of 75,000 here in 1930."

Secretary Art L. Burge, in speaking of the campaign to increase the size of the city, said that "if every man in the city will become a booster and adopt the slogan, 'Port Arthur 75,000 in 1930,' get the spirit of boost and cooperation, we'll reach that goal by 1930."

RETAILERS TO ELECT NEW OFFICIAL SLATE DEC. 17

$1 NOT ENOUGH FOR STOLEN LOVE, DECREE

By UNITED PRESS.

TOPEKA, Kans., Dec. 30.—A husband's love is worth more than a measly dollar, the Kansas state supreme court believes.

Mrs. Lottie Bracken, who recently was awarded $1 after she had asked $50,000 from George E. Champin on charges that she alienated her husband's affections, appealed from the decision of the Phillips county court.

The supreme court held that the decision of the lower court established the guilt of the defendant and the damages were not sufficient. The case was reversed.

JITNEY HIT BY AUTO, 6 INJURED

Another at Houston Dies of Sunday's Injuries

HOUSTON, Dec. 30.—Six persons were injured here today when an automobile driven by a Rice Institute student crashed into a loaded jitney.

OBREGON FORCES HOLDING JALAPA

Insurgent Forces Lose in First Battle

FOREIGNERS LEAVING

Mexico City Alarmed, Conditions Terrible, Claim

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 30.—Federal forces retook Jalapa, capital of Vera Cruz, captured by rebels last Saturday.

Troops loyal to President Obregon, against whom supporters of Adolfo de la Huerta rose in revolt, now are holding the city, which fell to General Sanchez, forces after a swift insurgent advance from the city of Vera Cruz.

Skirmish at Barua

Fighting continued around Jalapa during the night, according to reports reaching Mexico City.

Rebel forces skirmished with federal troops at Barua and were compelled to retire, according to another report.

It is believed that Governor Lopez De Garea of the state of Tamaulipas has fled to the United States.

NEVO LAREDO WILDLIFE EVICTED

NEVO LAREDO, Mexico, Dec. 30.—Nevio Laredo, a small town in the state of Coahuila, was the scene of a battle between federal forces and rebels.

In the battle, federal forces were victorious and the rebels were driven out of the town.

The rebels were reported to have fled to the mountains near the town.

The federal forces are now in control of the town and the surrounding area.

The rebels are reported to have a large number of men and weapons.

Coolidge Calls for 323 Million Slash in Federal Taxation

Sounds Death Knell to Bonus, But Assures Aid for Disabled Veterans—18 of 40 Billions Are Repaid in Seven Years

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—President Coolidge, in a special message transmitting the budget for the 1933 fiscal year, today called on congress to reduce taxes at once.

He endorsed in full the Mellon program to cut taxes $323,000,000. He opposed the shelter bonus as deadly to all hopes of tax relief and as not a "proper obligation" to the veterans.

The time has come, he said, to share the benefits of governmental economies, past and in prospect, with the people, by reducing the tax burden.

How to Live, Stages

Rigorous adherence by congress to budget estimates will permit immediate and continuing relief; enactment of extraordinary appropriations measures not contemplated in the budget will defeat it, Mr. Coolidge declared.

For his part, he will guarantee that executive departments responsible to him "will live" to the line, he told congress.

The budget transmitted by Mr. Coolidge provided for government expenditures of $4,235,000,444 during the 1933 fiscal year, $200,957,644 less than during the current year and the lowest yearly expenditures of the government since before the war.

Specifically, the executive asked for appropriations of $3,618,000,000, the difference between appropriations and expenditures being due to the fact that congress makes more appropriations which carry over from year to year.

$305,000,000 Surplus

A surplus of $305,000,000 in the government's financial operations for the next fiscal year was estimated.

Compared with an estimated surplus of $229,000,000 this year and an actual surplus of $200,957,644 in the fiscal year, which ended June 30, 1932.

These figures, Mr. Coolidge told congress, "constantly justify the view that we can stand a reduction in our federal receipts, and still achieve a balanced budget."

The total receipts of the government during the next fiscal year were estimated at $3,618,000,000, as compared with $3,618,000,000 during the current year, a decrease of $200,000,000.

These estimates are based on (Turn to Page 2, Column 1.)

Other Officers Not Named

State antiracket organizations will be asked to enlist under the new national association, Walton stated.

R. K. Stevens, state manager of the antiracket association, declared he was in favor of Walton's program and could not indicate when the state organization would take shape.

Officers of the National Association of American Freemans have not been announced.

ASPHALT BURNER FOR STREET REPAIR ARRIVES

The portable asphalt burner, purchased by which the city commission arrived today and will be put to work on Port Arthur's paved streets immediately.

The burner will be used to repair the cracks in the asphalt paving which creep in as the wear begins to tell on the roadway.

An operator has been assigned to the device and will be employed continually going over the asphalt streets of the city.

DRIVERS CUTTING RUTS IN PROCTER BOULEVARDS

Orders prohibiting parking and driving of cars on the parkway on Procter street were issued this morning by Mayor J. P. Logan.

The mayor stated that the work of grading the boulevard between the car tracks out Procter street had been completed, but motorists were again tearing ruts in the places.

In connection with the grading of this piece of city property, arrangements will be considered to beautify the boulevard as soon as possible.

TARDY ALLEGED VAGS ARE LOGGED IN JAIL

"Twas a busy day for the 35 or more persons arrested Saturday night on charges of vagrancy. They were notified to appear in a justice of the peace court, and when some of them failed to appear at the time set they were ordered to jail, pending their ability to give bonds.

Deputy Sheriff Foster arrested 35 Saturday night, but did not require them to come to the station, taking their names and ordering them to appear Monday for trial.

U. S. HOLLAND, MAY ENTER BOOZE TREATY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—The United States has started negotiations with the Netherlands government for a treaty similar to that being arranged with Great Britain to permit this country to search and seize rum-running vessels outside the three-mile limit and to allow such ships to bring liquor under seal into American waters, the state department announced today.

My Personal Reminiscences

By CHARLES A. CULBERTSON

(NOTE—Senator Charles A. Culbertson of Texas is spending the winter in Washington, D. C., writing his "Reminiscences." This is the second of a series of thirty-two of these letters, covering the thirty-two years of his public service, January 17, 1891—March 4, 1923.)

SECOND LETTER

January 17, 1891. I was admitted to the bar at Jefferson, before Judge S. H. Starn, district judge, and was examined by a committee composed of M. L. Crawford, P. A. Turner and John A. Hixson.

My first case was the matter of John W. L. Hixson, present United States Judge for the Eastern District of Texas.

I had great pleasure in joining with Senator Starn in recommending his appointment to this position by President Wilson.

I began the practice of law at Jefferson, Texas, as a member of my father's firm of Culbertson & Armstrong, and remained in this firm for several years, when I withdrew from it and continued the practice at Jefferson alone.

Necessarily the practice was not confined to any particular branch of the law and included all character of cases, both civil and criminal, which were subjects of litigation in the courts of that section.

In the course of time I was employed on one side or the other in nearly all cases in the courts at Jefferson, and in many cases in surrounding counties.

Perhaps the most notable case in which at this time I was counsel was that of the United States vs. Israel Le Grand in the United States District Court at Jefferson.

This case arose under what was known as the Ku Klux Act of Congress, and after trial before Judge Amos Morrill, United States district judge, in which I attacked the constitutionality of the act, Le Grand was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

From this judgment I appealed to the United States Circuit Court and the appeal was heard before Associate Justice Woods, of the Supreme Court of the United States, sitting as circuit justice at Dallas.

Justice Woods, after consideration of the case, reversed the judgment and dismissed the prosecution, holding the act of Congress to be unconstitutional and void, as contended by me. The case will be found in the 12th Federal Reporter.

In writing me from Washington about the Le Grand case soon after the decision, my father said: "No such legal victory has been achieved in my day."

COOLIDGE WANTS TAX REDUCTION

Coolidge today announced a back tax reduction, of approximately $250,000,000.

Departmental Estimates
Coolidge today announced the estimates for appropriations for the department of commerce, $24,000,000, increase of $1,000,000.

Department of the Interior, $250,000,000, decrease of $25,000,000.
Department of Labor, $9,702,500, decrease, $500,000.

Navy department, $278,400,000, decrease, $20,000,000.
State department, $14,900,000, decrease, $200,000.

Treasury department, $148,000,000, decrease $5,000,000.
War department, $440,441,000, decrease $15,000,000.

Veterans bureau, $349,000,000, decrease $42,000,000.
Shipping board, $30,744,000, decrease $2,000,000.

Public dept. interest, $800,000,000, decrease $15,000,000.
Public debt interest, $800,000,000, decrease $50,000,000.

Post office department, payable out of postal receipts and not by appropriation $613,000,000, increase $25,000,000.

More for Coast Guard.
Mr. Coolidge told congress in his message that in addition to these appropriations, he would shortly ask it to provide an additional $20,000,000 with which to purchase more equipment for the coast guard to enable it to cope more adequately with rum runners. If granted, he will later ask $4,000,000 more for the same purpose, he said. These appropriations, he said, would be charged against the current fiscal year.

While dwelling on the subject Mr. Coolidge called particular attention to congress today to the increase of $1,000,000 in 1923 estimates for prohibition enforcement, indicating his desire that the money be provided.

The estimates for the war and navy departments provide for the continuation of the present personnel of the service, no money being provided for the increase in man-power sought by Secretary Weeks and Dumb.

$18,000,000,000 Repaid.
"The American people have given a truly magnificent demonstration of patience and patriotism during the years in which they have borne this burden," Mr. Coolidge said.

"In less than seven years, to put the matter very briefly, we have spent $41,000,000,000 and we have paid from current revenues $18,000,000,000 or nearly half the amount. "Certainly the action which has been so patriotically persisted in meeting the enormous burden of government costs is entitled at the earliest possible moment to the largest measure of relief from these burdens that can possibly be afforded."

"I am convinced that the time has now come to extend this relief through a substantial reduction in taxation and the fiscal program which I have outlined in the budget estimates which are herewith transmitted to the congress is based on this purpose."

States Costs Too High.
"We are all familiar with the fact that the larger part of the tax burden arises not from the expenditures of the federal government but from the governmental costs of states and municipalities."

The president then referred to the $20,000,000 surplus existing in the treasury as a result of cautious economy during the fiscal year ended June 30 last and surpluses of slightly larger amounts forecast for the fiscal year 1924 and 1925 by the budget bureau.

"It would not take much, however, to exhaust this margin and any program of new expenditures on a large scale would make reduction impossible for years to come."

The president then sounded the death knell of the soldier's bonus unless congress should desire and would be able to pass one over the president's veto.

"I question if there is any sound reason for such a measure," he declared.

Obligation to Disabled.
"The country is prosperous and remunerative employment is available for the able-bodied victims as well as for other citizens. For the disabled veterans of the war and the dependents of those we fell the country cannot do too much."

"It has already spent nearly two billion dollars and is now spending nearly half a billion dollars yearly for their benefit."

"That obligation it must and will continue to fulfill in fullest measure. But the fit and able-bodied veterans and offered the opportunities open to every other citizen."

"If I felt that a soldier's bonus represented a great need and proper obligation which could be fulfilled by this nation, I certainly would not make a recommendation which would be adverse thereto."

Johnson Wants World Parleys Against War

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Senator Magnus Johnson, Minnesota, today introduced a resolution in the senate authorizing the president to call an international conference of all nations with whom the United States has treaties for the purpose of formulating new treaties against war.

The resolution also provides for appointment of an international peace commission which would investigate international tangles and report within 12 months.

Senator Ladd, North Dakota, progressive, introduced a resolution which would prevent the president or congress declaring war without a referendum except in case of invasion or insurrection.

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all of the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster WITH-OUT the blister. You just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, croup, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu."

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Police Probe Shooting of Officer in Squabble

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 10.—Police today were investigating the circumstances surrounding the shooting of Joe P. Neal, 40, deputy internal revenue collector, and the injuring of Mrs. F. A. Pruitt, 35, and James W. Griffin, 43, in an altercation at Mrs. Pruitt's home last night.

Neal, according to Mrs. Pruitt, came to her home last night in search of his wife. When she told Neal that she had not seen his wife, a scuffle ensued in which two shots were fired, the bullets striking Neal, Mrs. Pruitt said. She and Griffin were hurt during the struggle.

Neal was removed to a hospital and Mrs. Pruitt and Griffin were questioned by police.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—The tragic picture of the Twentieth Century Limited crash near Forty-fifth, N. Y., yesterday morning with its toll of nine dead and many injured, was painted in the United Press today by men and women who played heroic roles in the tragedy.

A woman physician, Dr. O. C. Thoren, Chicago, was one of the out-standing figures.

"I was awakened from my sleep by a terrible crash," she said. "I immediately knew something terrible had happened. I jumped from my berth, ran out of my cabin and saw the wreckage. I was helping to bandage the injured. I was helping to bandage the injured. I was helping to bandage the injured."

Dr. Thoren said she saw the wreckage of the train. She saw the wreckage of the train. She saw the wreckage of the train.

BOUFFANT SKIRT TRIES HARD TO ATTAIN SUCCESS BUT ONLY SUCCEEDS TO A SMALL DEGREE

THE bouffant skirt has tried desperately to succeed. Or rather those who admire the silhouette of the bouffant could eventually supplant the straight and narrow outline. But fashion experts declare it was doomed to failure. Perhaps after years of the straight lines a swinging back to the full skirt was natural—anything in fashion can be of anything in fashion—but the full skirt that has been presented and that has been worn on stage, by bride-maids and by young girls at dances has not been a skirt that anyone would choose to wear. It is a fashion disaster.

The straight silhouette seems to be all with us, but it is already showing a desire to ornateness. And it is that as a compromise between natural swinging over to the very full skirt, and the present day femininity of such a skirt there is a skirt that starts out with a fullness at the hip but gets no further. It resembles the "Cambray" silhouette, showing short godets at the hips that are held out by means of stiffening.

One brown velvet frock worn recently gives the peg-top effect, here are ruffles, three in number, of a velvet over each hip. They are bordered in gold threads and are flared by some sort of wire between the velvet and the lining. Sometimes this peg-top effect is achieved by the shaping of pockets, as in one of the new short jackets, the skirt effect produced by the pockets.

THE frocks young women are wearing for dinner engagements are almost exactly the same in line as the frocks they wear to work. And as entirely permissible, so long as the material is different.

The dinner dress may be modeled in a full, embroidered, crepe material or perhaps velvet. The business dress may be of serge or some soft material.

COLOR CUT-OUT

A Toy Wagon To Make "Billy, look," cried Betty Cut-Out in it at school. "Up in it, the children's house, I saw a poor crippled boy in a wheel chair. He's laughing and pointing at my wagon." Betty held up the toy she had made at school while the boy clapped his hands with pleasure.

"I have a wonderful Christmas idea," Betty said when a nurse came and took the little invalid away from his window. "I'll tell my teacher tomorrow."

Every day at school the Cut-Outs make a new kind of Christmas toy. Here you see a wagon they made out of the bottom of a match box. Try making one yourself with milk stoppers for wheels. Sew meat skewers or two smooth sticks on the bottom of the box (see the top diagram) with wheels on the ends and string wound on the outside to hold the wheels on. Make a seat from cardboard, cutting it by the picture, half an inch wider than the size of the match box. Cut a wagon tongue of cardboard to paste on the front.

I wonder, little Marquise, if after all my heavy talk to Mrs. Smithson the other day I would really be big enough to love my baby as I do if I thought Jack was his father and this little French girl were his mother. It is all very well to talk big over these things, but could Jack forget the mother when that dear little innocent face was raised to his? I don't know.

I didn't dare ask Jack last night to go with me to the movie picture because I was sure that he had heard something, although he had said nothing to me. I had intuition that he was afraid I would ask him to go to the show and when I picked up courage enough to ask him if he had seen the picture he answered in a very cross tone, "Why should I go to see a fool moving picture? I can't understand anyone with brains being amused, edified or instructed by them."

MRS. J. M. DAWSON AND LITTLE daughter, Juanita, of Orange, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Dawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Green of 236 Fourth street. Upon their return to Orange they were accompanied by little Miss Maxine Dawson, who has been visiting her grandparents here the past week.

THE VARIOUS GROUPS OF the Central Baptist church will meet in regular group sessions tomorrow as follows: Circle Two will meet with Mrs. Charles Wilson at her home, 2824 Tenth street. Circle Three will meet with Mrs. D. I. Smyth at her home in the Model Addition.

Circle Four will meet at the home of Mrs. Franklin W. Jones, 2118 Tenth street. Every day at school the Cut-Outs make a new kind of Christmas toy. The Tangle

Jack said, "My God, Leslie! Won't you let up harping on that? If you have to adopt a baby, wouldn't it be better to know that it was the offspring of such a splendid chap as Sydney and such a beautiful girl as Paula?" "Then it is the truth," I interrupted quickly. "I am not saying it is the truth. Remember that, I don't know anything about it. I am just making a supposition." "Ruth thinks he looks like Miss Perier," I interrupted, then wished I hadn't.

"Ruth—Ruth! Ruth Ellington had better keep her mouth shut," growled Jack. "I never approved of your great intimacy with her and I approve of it less now than ever before, since she is going to open that shop. Where did she get the money for that? It might be well for her as for you to know that our baby is the only subject of gossip in the city. Everyone is saying that she either held out some money from Harry's creditors or that Walter Burke has set her up in business." (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

"I have not been trying to intimate anything, John, but of course you know people are hinting that little Jack is the son of this girl who is playing the part in 'Templing His Heart'." "Who told you that? If it were Ruth Ellington I shall tell her never to come into this house again." Then I made another mistake, Ruth Marquise. I lied again to Jack and told him that Ruth had never spoken to me about it, that I did not think she knew anything about it. He tried to insist upon my telling him who it was and we had a dreadful quarrel. At last I told him that I knew little Jack was the son of Paula Perier and I was pretty sure that Sydney Carton was the boy's father.

Mothers AND THEIR CHILDREN

Here's a game to teach little brother or sister. They can play it at their party times. All the youngsters stand in line, one behind the other. Each one holds the coat or dress of the one in front, while singing the words "Make a tail, make a tail for the great big whale." They step forward a step in time with the tune. The leader, who is at one end of the tail, may lead the others wherever he chooses until the word "whale" has been sung. At the word each child stamps his foot, drops the coat or dress of the one ahead, turns quickly and catches at once the coat or dress of the one who was behind him.

WINFREE GIVEN OFFICER ESCORT

Goes to Mexico in Attempt to Liberate Americans

HOUSTON, Dec. 10.—State Representative J. E. Winfree, on his way to Mexico, to attempt to secure the release of Harry Roberts and Russell Strothers, Houstonians held in a Valley jail for 18 months without trial, will be escorted by a United States army officer while in Mexico. Secretary of State Hughes, it was learned here today, has wired the consular office at Tampico to provide Winfree with an army officer to accompany him. Winfree left here on Thursday night for Tampico. Strothers and Roberts were thrown into jail following a pitched battle with federal forces when they attempted to help another American, Monte Michel, wanted by the Mexican government for outlawry, to escape. Three Americans brought in a 65,000 barrel oil well near Valle and when the oil company controlling the field refused to move their oil, Michel turned outlaw, burning several wells and blowing up an oil company train.

Girl, Victim of Brutal Kepper, Is Well Again

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 10.—Marceline Grace, whose battered and torn little body was brought to a local hospital three months ago, is back home with her mother, her limbs straight and strong, and the glow of life again in her cheeks. "Fanned out" to a childless young man, Mrs. E. D. Evans, because her own mother, a domestic, could not care for her, Marceline was found by juvenile officers at the point of death, her legs beaten almost into a pulp. Mrs. Evans was convicted and sentenced to prison. "I'm almost a young lady now," said Marceline who had celebrated her twelfth birthday in the hospital. "Mamma, I can have my hair bobbed now, can't I?" Mrs. Grace smiled sadly as she gave thanks for the first Sunday dinner which she has shared with her daughter in many years.

DOPE ADDICT BEGS JUDGE TO KILL HIM

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 10.—Street "bodies" take me out and shoot me!" This was the unusual request made of Federal Judge Hildes yesterday by John W. Farnum, narcotic addict, after he had pleaded guilty to disposing of a quantity of morphine.

Farnum wept as he detailed the life he had been leading for the last ten years, making frantic efforts to break away from the habit. "I haven't the will power to quit. I wish you would have me shot. That would be better." Judge Hildes sentenced him to three years at McNeil Island so he may be cured. Farnum tearfully thanked him for the sentence. Judge Hildes made a special order sending the broken spirit addict north with a group of federal prisoners that left for prison yesterday afternoon.

WATCH LOST ON LIQUOR PARTY

PORT WORTH, Dec. 10.—It cost a 16-year-old Riverside boy one of his most valued possessions to take part in a liquor party, according to the story told police Sunday morning by the youth's father. While the boy was in a state of coma, produced by over-indulgence in the cup that cheers, his watch was taken out of his person by one of his companions, the father said. Still drunk, the youth was taken to his home and evicted from the automobile.

YEAR'S BEST FILM

All the glamour of sunny Spain is wrapped up in "Rosita." Mary Pickford's new production at the Peoples this week. Miss Pickford appears as a peasant dancing girl or old Seville, and nobody can blame the King who lost his head because of her charming ways.

To begin with, little Mary is more happily cast than in recent years. As the Spanish dancer, tempestuous and daring, she fits vividly into an exotic background. Much emotional work is called for, but Miss Pickford portrays joy, disdain, fear, horror, love, jealousy and abandon as if she really felt her every action.

The supporting cast is of the superlative order. George Walsh is sturdy and handsome as the hero, Holbrook Blinn is irresistible as the profligate King, and Irene Rich is regal and stately as his watchful spouse. Minor parts also are well taken.

The photography is superlative throughout. Scenic backgrounds are magnificent, but it is in the portrayal of action that the cameramen have done their best work.

It is hard to remember a film as well constructed. The story moves on evenly, without a break, and the elements of romance, pure drama and comedy are mixed in just the right amounts. In fact, "Rosita" is easily one of the best pictures of the season.

Mrs. Watson, the organist at the Peoples, has arranged a special score for the picture and her music promises to be unusually delightful.

COUNTY SEEKS HIGHWAY ROUTE

Officials Start Condemnation Proceedings

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—Condemnation proceedings for a small strip of ground at Nome will be started in county court promptly. For some time county officials have been attempting to reach a favorable agreement with Mrs. Nellie Weaver of Nome in order that they might cross her property with the new road being built there. Since no settlement could be made satisfactory to both Mrs. Weaver and the county, an order was passed Monday morning for condemnation proceedings, in the manner that normally secure right of ways.

Locke Home Robbed.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—Burglars gained entrance to the home of C. P. Locke, 2402 Anglin street, here Sunday night by prying off a screen from the back porch and then opening a window. In a report made to the police department Monday morning, Mr. Locke stated that he had missed a rifle, a pair of field glasses, a handbag containing a little money and two pairs of trousers.

Order Bond Issue.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—The county commissioners court Monday morning passed an order for the issuance of $20,000 school bonds in the Amelia district. An election was held recently and voters in that district asked that two new schools be built there, one to cost $15,000 for the white children and $2,000 was set aside for the negro school.

Seek to Remand Case.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—An application to remand the case of Miss Frankie King, who is suing the city of Beaumont and the Southwestern Bell Telephone company for $20,000 damages, was filed in federal court Monday morning. An attempt will be made to try the case in the district courts. The suit was brought as the result of an accident in 1921 when Miss King was permanently injured by falling on a defective sidewalk where the city was doing some construction work.

Courts Maintain Selves.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—The county justice courts will soon become a paying proposition if the number of arrests made recently continue. More than 20 violators appeared Monday morning before Justice of the Peace H. H. Reeves. Of this number six were young Beaumont boys found gambling Sunday afternoon on an uptown hotel. There were also 11 negroes in court who pled guilty to gambling. The balance of the offenses were all for automobile law violations, including speeding, running without a number, or operating a truck without a rear view mirror.

Thief Attacks Auto.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—Three young white boys reported to police Monday that a man, either a negro or Mexican, jumped on the side of their automobile Sunday night and attempted to rob them. A number of instances have been reported to police recently that attempted holdups by automobilists on roads that are little traveled have taken place. The boys declared that it was only with great difficulty that they succeeded in fighting the man from their car.

Dedicate Synagogue.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—The new Jewish synagogue was dedicated Sunday afternoon here with appropriate services in which five ministers of Protestant churches and one Catholic priest took part. The service, which was very impressive, was the second of its kind ever held in Beaumont when Jewish rabbis, Catholic priests and Protestant ministers all took part in a fellowship meeting.

Klansmen Visit Church.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—Six Klansmen, in the regalia of the order, visited the Magnolia church Sunday night here and presented Woodie Smith, evangelist, with $100. A series of evangelistic services have been conducted at the Magnolia church for the past two weeks, during which time a number of new members were taken in the church.

Revolver Stolen.

BEAUMONT, Texas, Dec. 10.—A thief entering a Santa Fe boarding car Sunday night obtained two revolvers, according to a report furnished police Monday morning. A new pair of shoes was also taken.

Is Your Account Appreciated or Tolerated?

Your Last Month's Account Is DUE—PAY IT NOW

It Will Keep Your Credit Good
And Make Your Account Desirable

The retail merchants and professional men listed below are conducting an advertising campaign to educate slow-paying customers in the fairness and importance of paying bills promptly when due.

Last month's account, per statement rendered on the first of this month, is due now. Whether you have paid such account or not, please read all this "ad."

Your credit standing is based upon the promptness with which you pay—not upon your intention of paying or your ability to pay—but the way you DO pay.

Many persons have been negligent and indifferent in the prompt payment of their bills, mainly because they do not realize the importance and fairness of being prompt. These people will respond to our explanation of the conditions which make necessary the enforcement of the prompt pay measure at the present time.

There are others, however, who believe that because they eventually pay their bills their accounts are desirable. They think a fancied superiority to ordinary mortals, because of prominence in business or social circles, releases them from their obligation of paying their debts promptly.

KEEP Your Credit
GOOD

Such people think that they can assume the prerogative of saying how and when they shall pay their bills. Some of them (it is known) because of poor management of their personal affairs, buy more than they can pay for. Putting off payment from month to month, meanwhile buying more, allows the total to become almost unpayable.

Then they become indignant at courteous requests for settlement. It is decidedly unpleasant for all concerned.

The prosperity of Port Arthur, the prosperity of the Nation depends upon the prompt discharge of all obligations. Prompt payers will bring business back to normal and start idle factories to running. Merchants can not buy from jobbers and manufacturers unless they pay. Overdue book accounts are not considered very highly by the merchant's banker.

From now on all customers are expected to pay their accounts in full when due—between the first and tenth of month following purchase. If they do this their accounts will be welcomed at all stores. If they do not, they will soon find their accounts are undesirable:

"Wild Bill" Donovan, Who Tipped Off Big League Ball Scandal, Killed in Wreck Sunday

Season Basketball Row to Be Ended in Franklin Tonight

Gulfie Girls Clash With Collegians in Early Caging Scrap

Fast Teams Rounded Into Trim Shape By Coaches Davis and Lawis to Mix Science And Court Ability in Game at 7:30

BY BILL ARCHER
THE second basketball encounter of the season will be played tonight, "rain or shine," in Franklin Gym, when the girls from Port Arthur Business College clash with the Good Gulf contingent.

The game is more or less a grudge match, and on its outcome will probably depend a definite settlement of the argument extant between the two organizations as to which is the better team.

For weeks the pot has been boiling. Tonight the referee will lift the lid and take off the broth, while two snappy caging units mix their stuff to show Port Arthur fandom the art of goaling.

Those who recall the spirit shown by the Good Gulf club last season will remember that the squad scraps harder than the boys do, and that the crowd is kept howling almost as much as when certain of the state's strongest male quintets invade the quiet realm of Franklin gym and set it topsy-turvy.

Those who haven't seen the College Girls play yet have a real treat coming to them. The contingent is destined to be one of the best produced this season, with many players claiming unusual ring ability, and with a coterie of guards capable of defending their goal to the utmost.

Early this season, both contingents were among the first to take the field and almost as quick to leave for the 1923-24 basketball year. Coach Ralph Lewis, who so successfully guided the 1922-23 Gulfie Girls club, is again at the helm of affairs this year, and has a number of his last season players to depend upon.

Included in the ranks of the 1923-24 crew are such players as Goin, Williams, Crow, Holbert, all of whom were in the game last season and showed considerable ability as goalers.

The Gulfie squad is minus their principal star, however. Margaret O'Neal having left the ranks, first what effect her absence will have on the new team remains to be shown tonight, when the two contingents tangle up. Margaret was one of the most consistent goalers ever presented in Port Arthur, and no doubt the Gulf will feel a keen need of her more than once during the incoming season.

However, Coach Lewis has developed a fighting unit, and it takes the fight to win in any game.

The College Girls, under the able direction of Miss Ivel Lavis, former C. I. A. student, have "come out of the kitchen" and promise to make the local season sizzler with exciting games. They really started to tonight's practice clash, and the second practice encounter resulted in a squeaker as to the victor, both clubs claiming honors. Tonight they'll settle the row.

The lineups which will probably start the game include:

Port Arthur	College
Goin	Good
Crow	Goin
Williams	Good
Clark	Good
Crow	Good
Steel	Good
Holbert	Good

Gulf sides: Phare and Paul. The game starts promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

EIGHT CLASHES FOR THE IRISH

Princeton, Georgia Tech Are Favored For 1924

United News.
SOUTH BEND, Dec. 10.—The 1924 schedule of the "fighting Irish" will be confined to eight gridiron games, the Notre Dame athletic board decided late Friday. The customary ten games was ruled excessive.

Princeton, Georgia Tech, the Army, Nebraska and Lombard have already been booked for next fall, and the departure of Knute Rockne, Irish coach, for New York City Friday night is believed to involve negotiations with Dartmouth and Cornell for 1924 dates. No action has been taken on a proposed game with the University of Wisconsin, and acceptance of dates with Wake Forest, DePaul and Carnegie Tech has also been deferred.

LEAD "FIRST TEN"
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—William T. Tilden, William M. Johnston, James O. Anderson of Australia, and Richard S. Williams lead the "first ten" of the world's tennis players, according to the selection of Wallis Myers, leading British critic.

THE NUT CRACKER

Churches have taken up basketball. Local Methodists, Baptists and Catholics already have teams in the field. Who's next?

Coach Dinnitt negotiating with Tyson's Waco Tigers for titular game in Beaumont. If he gets it, Port Arthur will be there 100 per cent strong.

There won't be a dull minute in Franklin gym. The boys who want to get enlightening facts on basketball ought to turn out strong to see that Good Gulf-Gulfie clash tonight.

John Ellis, Helena, Ark., grasping ace who will have Clarence Ecklund, the champion, in Beaumont this week, is working out here with George Actor.

If those College Girls play anything like the team Tilden has built up for the boys, the Gulf Girls will have their hands full tonight.

Among other interesting things for Port Arthur fans to think about is the advent of the Baylor Bears, here December 20 against the fast Texas Stars. Tickets go on sale soon.

"Wild Bill" Donovan, the baseball player who didn't believe in crooks, has passed on to the other side, and with his passing went one of the "clearest" minds in baseball. It was "Wild Bill" who tipped off the most crooked baseball scandal of the ages—the world series of '19.

All the master minds of baseball hibernating in Gotham today.

The statistics show that Clevelander who is supposed to be all through, was the best pitcher in the world last summer. . . . Ain't statistics wonderful!

Some say you may expect to see old Doc Cook pop up with sheet of statistics proving that he not only discovered the north pole but built it.

Figures never lie. Statistics are figures that started out in life with high ideals but fell in with a gang of toughs around the corner store.

You can prove anything by statistics. . . . except that you can't prove anything.

Statistics are very little symbols which are forever being laid out on end and reaching from here to yonder.

At a football game it is never prudent to cheer the halfback who runs 57 yards for a touchdown. . . . The statistics of the game, published the next day, may show that your cheer was entirely out of place.

Battle series of the famous traditional grid scrap between Varsity and the Aggies were enacted on a blackboard in a mammoth auditorium, where play by play details of the Thanksgiving Day clash were reported.

To make hash in the good old fashioned way, fill a crock with fresh mown statistics, and hot water and serve.

Be it ever so humbling, there are no statistics like "ten and out." Says Joseph Beckett of London.

A statistician is a man with a head full of figures. . . . a figure head, as it were.

Armed with statistics, congressmen can show that the bonus is impossible. . . . Armed with apple sauce they can show the same thing.

The Abilene Wildcats are starting picking their 1923-24 lineups.

Chicago Included in International Hockey League With Canadians

OTTAWA, Kans., Dec. 10.—Chicago is to be included in an international hockey league next year. Plans now under way, and proposed by Messrs. E. J. Livingstone and Percy Quinn of Toronto, provide for the inclusion of Chicago in the circuit.

These plans have been carefully laid, and the circuit will consist of Toronto, Pittsburgh, New York, Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia and Ottawa, Canada. The latter is the greatest hockey town in Canada, and the home of the world's champion Senators, who for five years have been champions and runners up in the Canadian position.

Time Ripe for League
The time is believed to be ripe for an international league. Hockey, the hockey magazine of Pittsburgh, is particularly impressed with the idea.

Several hundred thousand dollars have been tossed into the scheme by Livingstone and Quinn, and the promoters believe it necessary to a campaign of education in Chicago, Philadelphia and New York and the game will become the winter pastime of these cities, outstripping all others as an attraction.

Pittsburgh Already Converted
Pittsburgh has been for years a hotbed of hockey and has several times held the championship of the United States. The game has flourished in an amateur way in New York and Boston, with its large transplanting Canadian population, has played to capacity in the amateur league all the time. Toronto is a good sport, and there is in America, such and the population is close to 800,000 a league would be assured of crowds there is no other city of comparable size.

Chicago, which is regarded as the key city of hockey in Canada, would probably throw in her lot. In fact, there are indications that the game will be practically abandoned in Eastern Ontario and Quebec. The western leagues are gradually disorganizing.

Montreal, too, has been mentioned, but Montreal does not hold a very high regard in the eyes of the promoters, as it is notoriously a poor sporting town. Nothing but an absolute winner can pay its way there.

French and despite the fact that the basis of America has thousands of tourists, and the population is close to 800,000 a league would be assured of crowds there is no other city of comparable size.

There is no other city of comparable size. There is no other city of comparable size. There is no other city of comparable size.

Paddy Mullens Asks for Wills' "Right to Scrap" Jack Dempsey for Title

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—For the benefit of those who are trying to make my man look bad, I'll tell them all that Harry Wills isn't going to be argued out of a chance at the heavyweight championship. Paddy Mullens, manager of the negro, said today.

Mullens said that "bush league promoters" were making all kinds of offers for fights that he considered foolish, in an attempt to make it look as if Wills were afraid to meet a good man.

"That Virgo hasn't any right to be throwing challenges at Wills now. He's been knocked out by Dempsey, and he should stop back to the end of the line and wait his turn with the second."

"Tommy Gibbons has been beaten by Dempsey and we all know that Gibbons is too light to stand a chance with the champion in another bout. Remitt has a hundred miles to travel before he would be ready for a championship."

"Wills is the only contender. He has never been beaten by Dempsey and he is the outstanding man of the heavyweight class."

"We've been promised a chance with Dempsey, and we are still holding that promise. It has never been shown that a mixed bout will not be permitted and our failure to get Dempsey into the ring with Wills has meant only one thing, Dempsey does not want the match."

Years ago, George Vassel Actor came south to make his home. In Houston, he found a pair of stars occupying the center of attention—and they were the late Pat Brown of Taylor, and the present, Charles Rector of Little Rock, George tried to get matches with them both, but neither would sign to meet the sensational Greek wrestling ace.

So George challenged both together, threw in an extra man, "just to make the match interesting," and agreed to throw "all three men in one hour or quite Texas."

It was the first time in the history of the state that such a challenge had been hurled in the face of expert grapplers—and it was so strong, they all three took it, and refused to meet George Vassel Actor under any conditions.

Ever since that time, Actor has been trying to match Charles Rector. And up to the time of Brown's loss to Clarence Ecklund, light-heavyweight title holder, Actor sought matches with him unsuccessfully.

It was probably because the two men recognized Actor as one of the foremost light-heavyweights in the country that they failed to take his challenge and meet him. They left him for the championship class—so through the direction of Promoter Will Port, Actor has been unable to meet the light-heavyweight champion.

That match seems day-after-tomorrow in Port Arthur, the "place where George grows up," and George says he's "ready for the mill."

Actor, after a successful tour of the east, middle west and coast, returned to Port Arthur several weeks ago, met Harry Munos, vanquished the foe, and took up his abode again in this city to take on "all-comers."

And now, the first to come his way is Ecklund, conqueror of Brown, victor over Rector, repeated challenger of Ad Santol and a whirlwind grappler.

George will meet the best opponent in the field, and he will wrestle as he likes—before his home-town fans, all of whom have faith in his ability.

It's a fight to the finish Wednesday night when these two husky, scientific giants of the ring tangle up, and the crowd will enjoy it with high thrills. Ecklund will probably arrive here to day from his southern headquarters.

Houston, meet a few veteran friends, look the ring over and take a few light workouts for the benefit of fadion.

Tickets for the mill will go on sale early this morning at Eagle's Barber Shop, adjacent to Kibbe's Cafe, and can be obtained up to the afternoon of the match, only ringside and box seats being on sale at the present time.

LEAGUE HEADS IN CONFERENCE
Meeting Sobered By Tragic Death of Donovan

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—Sobered by the tragic death of "Wild Bill" Donovan, killed in the wreck of the Twentieth Century Limited, the annual meeting of the major and minor league baseball moguls swung into action today.

The fight between ex-President William McCarthy of the Pacific Coast League, and Harry Williams, new president, was the first bit of business on the program. Both sides presented their arguments to the board of arbitration, and a verdict may be reached some time today.

McCarthy disputes the right of Williams to the presidency. Nearly a score of minor league meetings are under way.

TUNNEY, GIBB, MEET TONIGHT

Carpenter Challenges Winner of MMA

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Gene Tunney and Harry Gibb the "You be a while and then I'll be" champion of the light-heavyweight class are of single tonight in Madison Square Garden.

Tunney, the handsome three-inch Villager, is the current champion, and Gibb, the flying Dutchman from Philadelphia, is the middleweight champion.

Tex Rickard received a cable today from Georges Carpentier asking that he be matched to meet the winner of February.

Rickard has been getting a lot of cable from Carpentier.

No winnings have been counted this time to "watch Gibb," but the clever Billy Gibson arranged a clever piece of "good getting" by hiring George Engle, the former manager of Gibb, to work in Tunney's corner. Engle and Gibb do not speak.

Fake Bouts "Killed" Game in New York

By United News.
NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—Unable to allow the suspicions of a town that used to support the wrestling business in legal style, the promoters of wrestling are becoming discouraged at their attempt to revive the game in New York. Two so-called big shows have been held here this year, one of which, between Walek Zhyzsko and Maru Plesina, drew a big crowd. The other match failed to pay as well, and the outlook is melancholy.

BIG TEST COMING
Ferry Haughton in his days at Harvard was regarded as the "wonder coach," the man responsible for the Crimson's great success on the gridiron. At Columbia this year Haughton has met with but little success, rather proving that the material makes the coach. However, it is too much to ask a coach to show much in his first year. It takes time to long to establish a system. Next year will be the big test for Haughton at Columbia.

COLGATE-NEBRASKA
HAMMILL, N. J., Dec. 10.—Colgate and Nebraska will meet on the gridiron next fall, a game having been scheduled between the two teams at Lincoln, Neb., on October 18. It will be the first game between the two schools.

How many steps should be taken before delivering the ball? Answered by JIMMY SMITH

Three times winner in all events of the American Bowling Congress, a record which no other bowler has ever approached. Famed for his ability to control a curved ball.

My method is to take four fast steps, starting with the right foot and ending with the left when the ball leaves my hand. The bowler should always start the same distance from the foul line; in this manner he will have accuracy in delivering the ball.

In answering the same question for an article earlier in this series, James Blount advised differently. He said, "Take five steps. Walk—do not lunge." Evidently Blount and Smith follow different styles. It is important to notice, however, that both agree on these points: 1. Take only a few steps. 2. Always start in the same place and take the same number of steps. 3. Last step is with feet square and hand holding ball.
